Gallup Resident Wins Contest

Arlene Joey wins Computer in Sacred Wind Communications' Contest!

Albuquerque, NM, November 12, 2009 – Sacred Wind Communications, Inc., (“Sacred Wind”) a New Mexico telecommunications company serving the Eastern Agency of the Navajo nation and surrounding communities, announced that it held the drawing for its Win A Computer Contest and Gallup resident Alice Joey won.

To say “thank you” to its customers and to the many communities who have supported Sacred Wind’s growth, Sacred Wind held a contest over the last month, with the grand prize being a new laptop computer. The grand prize winner was Arlene Joey of Gallup, New Mexico, who states: “I have never won anything valuable before and will use the computer for my work in taking care of the elderly.” Ms. Joey works for the Senior Center at the Twin Lakes Chapter.

Sacred Wind recently was voted the “Most Inspiring Small Business in America” through American Express and NBC’s Shine A Light campaign, due to Sacred Wind’s policy of helping the Navajo communities with food, free adult internet education, and college scholarships, among other programs.
