Sacred Wind Communications, Inc. Bestows Scholarships

Sacred Wind awards scholarship to Navajo high school student in New Mexico who is college bound

Albuquerque, May 30, 2008 – Sacred Wind Communications, Inc. (Sacred Wind), a New Mexico telecommunications company, today announced that they have awarded a scholarship to Navajo high school senior Francesca Jarvison. Ms. Jarvison's family hails from the Rock Springs Chapter which is within Sacred Wind's territory. This scholarship is based on academic achievement and community involvement.

Ms. Jarvison's scholarship is for $1,000 and will go toward her college tuition for the fall 2008 semester. This will be a continuing endowment to Francesca for the four years of her bachelor's degree, dependent on her GPA and continuing full-time registration. Francesca was recently graduated from Rehoboth Christian High School and plans to study Education at the University of New Mexico, beginning in the fall, 2008

In today's world more than ever before, there are many additional social and financial pressures on children that go beyond their basic academic efforts. When a child can excel in spite of these pressures, their efforts need to be recognized. Sacred Wind is committed to helping support excellence in academics and believes that children should be rewarded for their efforts. John Badal, CEO of Sacred Wind, stated that, "We received applications from many deserving students, but found that as a finalist Francesca's application was especially commendable

In the future, Sacred Wind plans to expand their scholarship fund to include all twenty-two Chapters in their territory.
