Sacred Wind Hires New Customer Service Representative

Yatahey, NM, November 6, 2009– Sacred Wind Communications, Inc., (“Sacred Wind”) a New Mexico telecommunications company, today announced that it has hired Ms. Kimberlene Kirk as a new Customer Service Representative. Ms. Kirk began employment with Sacred Wind on November 2nd and will be working out of Sacred Wind’s Headquarters in Yatahey, NM.

Ms. Kirk grew up around the Window Rock area, and presently resides with her family in Gallup, NM. Kim went to high school in Saint Michael’s, Arizona, attended the University of New Mexico where she studied Chemical Engineering, and is presently seeking a degree in Finance. Much of her employment background is in customer and administrative services, which experience she now brings to Sacred Wind. “We are glad to be able to employ such highly experienced and educated individuals as Kim Kirk,” said John Badal, Sacred Wind’s CEO. As a locally owned and operated company, Sacred Wind is committed to hiring locals to help stimulate the New Mexico economy.

Sacred Wind recently won the American Express “Shine a Light” Contest and was awarded the title of “The Most Inspiring Small Business in America”.
