SACRED WIND COMMUNICATIONS, INC. hires Eddie Roanhorse

Sacred Wind Hires New Outside Plant Technician

Bloomfield, NM, July 14, 2010– Sacred Wind Communications, Inc., (“Sacred Wind”) a New Mexico telecommunications company, today announced that it has hired Mr. Eddie Roanhorse as a new Outside Plant Technician. Mr. Roanhorse began employment with Sacred Wind on July 6, 2010 and will be working out of Sacred Wind’s Bloomfield, NM office which serves customers in the Four Corners area.

Eddie is originally from Chinle, Arizona, but will be relocating to Farmington, NM. He is a graduate of Chinle High School and attended Mesa Community College, the University of Arizona, and ITT, completing his Bachelor of Science degree. Mr. Roanhorse entered the Marine Corps in 1989 and is a veteran of Desert Storm and Desert Shield.

Eddie will support Sacred Wind’s outside plant technical staff in the expansion and maintenance of the company’s network in Nenahnezad, Upper Fruitland, San Juan, Huerfano, Nageezi, Counselor and Blanco areas. Sacred Wind has constructed a state of the art telecommunications system that will deliver voice and high-speed Internet services to large areas of the Four Corners area that have inadequate high-speed Internet services as well as areas that never have had phone services before. The company is now embarking on mass expansion of its services directly to people's homes and will be reaching hundreds of unserved homes this Summer and over the next 2-3 years. Sacred Wind's network in the Four Corners area represents over $8 Million in investment since 2007.

As a locally owned and operated company, Sacred Wind is committed to hiring locals to help stimulate the New Mexico economy. In 2009, Sacred Wind Communications was voted as "The Most Inspiring Small Business in America" through the American Express/NBC Shine A Light contest because of its dedication to making a difference in the communities in its territory.
