SACRED WIND COMMUNICATIONS, INC. hires Larry Livingston

Sacred Wind Hires New Warehouse Attendant in Yatahey

Yatahey, NM, February 17, 2010– Sacred Wind Communications, Inc., (“Sacred Wind”) a New Mexico telecommunications company, today announced that it has hired Mr. Larry Livingston as a new Warehouse Attendant. Larry began employment with Sacred Wind on February 1, 2010 and will be working out of Sacred Wind’s Headquarters in Yatahey, NM.

Mr. Livingston hails from the Gallup and Manuelito Chapter areas, and was graduated from Gallup High School. He has experience in outside plant construction, and has spent time as a telecommunications installer and a lineman apprentice. Damian Diaz, Sacred Wind’s Provisioning Specialist, states: “We are happy to have Mr. Livingston on board with us, because of his vast experience in outside plant, and because of our commitment to hiring local people to help the New Mexico economy.”

Sacred Wind was recently voted as “The Most Inspiring Small Business in America” through the American Express/NBC Shine A Light contest because of its commitment to making a difference in local communities.
