Sacred Wind Communications Holds Benefit Concert

Sacred Wind's Non-Profit will hold a Concert in Kirtland, NM to Raise Money for Food and Blankets for the Navajo Reservation

Albuquerque, October 30, 2009 – Sacred Wind Communications, Inc. (Sacred Wind), a New Mexico telecommunications company, and its non-profit affiliate, Sacred Wind Communications Community Connect, have organized a Navajo Food Drive Benefit Concert for Saturday, November 7th in Kirtland, NM. The concert will be held between 6:00 and 8:00 p.m. at the Isham Performing Arts Center (near Kirtland's High School). The proceeds of this concert will go to the purchase of food for the 22 Navajo Chapters within Sacred Wind's territory, and toward purchasing blankets for the elderly in these Chapters.

In support of this benefit, the Isham Center has donated their auditorium to Sacred Wind for this event, and the entertainers have all donated their time to perform at this concert. They are:

- Kansas K. Begaye, singer and musician
